

2018 Veteran's Day Deals

With Veteran's Day fast approaching I thought it would be a great idea to look around the inter web and see what some companies would be offering for that day. For some, I know people who plan their day around these sales. It's a big day for Vet's and it should be you've earned it. Take the day and be appreciated, enjoy the fruits of your labor for your military career. All the long days, cold nights in the field, bays and office. If you're able to please enjoy yourself. And thank you all for your service and sacrifice. Here's a list of things I've found, I'll keep updating every time I find something new.
